The City of Danbury, Connecticut and the Danbury Police Department have taken on a leadership role in building lasting partnerships with our residents, by promoting a atmosphere of mutual trust and communication. Because of this commitment, we continue to be one of the safest city in the nation in which to live. The Danbury Police Department currently runs a 10 week Citizen Police Academy twice a year. Topics which are covered during this time are: Introduction to your police department, Patrol Procedures, Crime Scenes, Use of Force / Defense Tactics, DUI Laws & Detection, Narcotics and Court Proceedings. Due to the overwhelming interest in this academy , seats are extremely limited and are awarded by an application process only. For more information or to obtain a application please contact Sergeant Edward Lopes, Community Affairs Officer, at the number provided.

For applications please contact
